

Identity Protection is a Portable Benefit

Identity theft can negatively impact your savings, your credit and your reputation. Continue to monitor and protect your identity with IdentityForce if you separate from your company.

Personalized credit and identity protection that follows you!

- Continue tracking your personal information and identity to keep it secure.
- Get notified of suspicious activity so you can act fast to reduce your risk.
- Take control by improving your credit score and digital safety.
- Keep our Certified Recovery Specialists and your reimbursement insurance (up to $2 million for Premium) handy in case the worst happens.

To continue your service within 30 days of your separation:

Online | Log in to your IdentityForce online account dashboard using your existing credentials. There you can select the plan you wish and pay via credit card.

Email | You'll receive a series of 4 emails that will include a link to your account dashboard, where you can select and pay for the plan you wish.

IMPORTANT: The primary email address on record is likely your work email. To ensure you receive these portability notices, log in to your IdentityForce online account and update your email address.

To migrate your account after 30 days of separation, you'll need to call 855-441-0270 to reactivate your account. You may cancel your enrollment in IdentityForce at any time.
